

Northwood Cemetery 11th December 2010
Agaricus campestris
Clitocybe odora
C. nebularis
C. phaeophthalma
Collybia butyracea
Hygrocybe calyptiformis
H. chlorophana
H. coccinea
H. psittacina
H. punicea
H. russioloriacea
H. virginea
Hygrophoropsis aurantiaca - clusters on wood chip
Hypholoma fasciculare
Lepista nuda
Mycena polygramma
M. vitilis
Pseudoclitocybe cyathiformis
Russula ochroleuca
Tricholoma sulphureum
Geastrum pectinatum - four under row of Macrocarpa trees
Geoglossum fallax
Lycoperdon perlatum
Microglossum olivaceum
Scleroderma areolatum
	Colin Pope
Ascochyta viburni
Diatrype disciformis
Erysiphe alphitoides
Erysiphe eonymi-japonici
Nectria galligena	confirmed microscopically
Phoma hedericola
Phragmidium violaceum
Puccinia iridis
Ramularia purpurascens
Schizopora paradoxa - we also had this growing on an old cedar cone (not commonly found on softwoods)
Septoria rubi
Septoria unedonis
Taphrina betulina
Thedgonia ligustrina
David Biggs	Current total: 39 species